STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE—PREMIUM LIST TO THE AMOUNT OF $4000—HON. J. C. BRECKINRIDGE CHOSEN ANNUAL ORATOR—CHINESE LABOR, &c.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DAILY NEWS] COLUMBIA, July 14.—The Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society met to-day and have made all arrangements for the Fair in November. The Secretary is to issue premium lists to the amount of four thousand dollars, to be raised by subscription. Hon. John C. Breckinridge was chosen the annual orator, and a committee appointed on Chinese labor. The committee adjourns to night.

EUROPE.

RUSSIA IN THE EAST—RESIGNATIONS WITHDRAWN

THE OXFORD BOAT CLUB.

LONDON, July 12.—The Times, in an article on the progress of Russian power in the East, regards the absorption of the petty Muscovite States by Russia as a benefit to the world, but says her presence in Asia must be consistent with the maintenance of British authority in India. With India prosperous and contented, continues the Times, we are safe; when the security of our power in India is felt and all fear of Russia is dissipated, both countries may unite to develop the vast regions committed to their care.

Messrs. Bright and Forster have withdrawn their resignations, which they recently tendered to the Reform Club.

The Oxford boat crew have gone into active training.

THE IRISH CHURCH BILL.

LONDON, July 14.—Mass meetings for and against disestablishment of the Irish Church are advertised.

PROPOSED REFORMS IN FRANCE—MESSAGE OF THE EMPEROR TO THE CORPS LEGISLATIF.

PARIS, July 12.—In the Corps Legislatif to-day a message from the Emperor Napoleon was presented and read by Minister Rouher. The message states that the Emperor has resolved to convoke the Senate to consider the following questions: The right of the Corps Legislatif to elect its own officers; the simplification of the methods of presenting and examining amendments to projects of law; submission to the Corps of commercial treaties for approval; control of the Budget; the abolition of any incompatibility which exists between holding at the same time a seat in the Corps and an office in the Ministry; and the extension of the right of interpellation. Similar questions with respect to the Senate are hereafter to be considered. The Emperor believes these measures will meet all demands.

In conclusion, he asks the Deputies to consider how often he has abandoned certain of his own prerogatives in the public interest for those already granted, which form an integral part of the institutions of the Empire; they ought to leave intact those rights which have been conceded to him by the people.

THE FRENCH IMPERIAL FAMILY.

Goings about Napoleon, Eugene and the Prince Imperial—Their Present Personal Appearance.

The Paris correspondent of the Chicago Tribune writes:

The Emperor, Empress and Prince Imperial, every day along the Champs Elysees and to the Bois. Familiar as their appearance is to the public, the streets are always lined when it is known they are to pass.

The Prince is an intelligent and interesting looking little fellow, with an expression of sadness in his face that may be the herald of his coming doom. He is in better health than he has been, but still delicate, and his body is infirmities. His mother dotes on him. One can see her heart is centered in her only son, for her eyes are always on him.

Louis Napoleon may be dying of the forty or fifty mortal diseases which surround him, but he is constantly supplying him, but, judging by his appearance, they don't hurt him much. He is very common-place in semblance; his eyes are dull and his face perfectly unattractive. He might well be mistaken for a Hebrew clothes-dealer of long experience, who having turned his attention to governing a great country, had resolved to make a perfect imitation of a Hebrew.

He reminds you of one of Cham's caricatures, with his broad shoulders and great body, and his short, little legs that seem to be stuck on. He is very much of the same type, and his short, little legs that seem to be stuck on. He is very much of the same type, and his short, little legs that seem to be stuck on.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The Cubans here have abundant evidence to the fact that the cholera is reported to have broken out among the Cubans in the Eastern Department and was very fatal. The vomit is very malignant along the coast and low lands, telling fearfully on the Spanish camps. Quesada holds his own before Puerto Principe. He expects to take the town and occupy the railroad to Nuevitas in a very short time. The Cubans have gained decided victories in the St. Jago de Cuba District, which have caused great rejoicings. General Jordan and his command have so far escaped the pestilence. An important engagement, which is deemed meritorious, will, it is thought, be of a decisive character.

Major Wofford visited Sherman to-day and received from him additional assurances of an impartial registration and election in Mississippi. The military officers who conducted the registration and election in Virginia will be ordered to Mississippi for the same duty.

The proclamation ordering the Mississippi election on the 4th Tuesday in November has been signed by the President and promulgated. It submits to a separate vote the disfranchisement clause, the ineligible clause to corporations or becoming stockholders in corporations. The part of the oath of office which follows is also submitted to a separate vote: "That I have never, as a member of any convention, voted for or signed any ordinance of secession; that I have never, as a member of any State Legislature, voted for the call of any convention that passed any such ordinance." Revenue to-day $974,000.

The President is arranging his business preparatory to his two weeks' absence.

Collector Willis and Deputy Collector Quinn have been arrested for alleged blindness to illicit distillation.

Joseph H. Foote has been appointed Pension Agent at Raleigh, N. C.

Admiral Poore succeeds Admiral Hoff, who asks to be relieved on account of ill health.

Mr. George Peabody is sick, but not seriously so.

The argument in the Yorger habeas corpus case to-day lasted four hours. Hoar contended that Chase had no jurisdiction. The Chief-Justice said he would not counsel when he had listened to the arguments.

THE PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRACY.

THE PLATFORM AND THE NOMINATION.

HARRISBURG, July 14.—In the Democratic Convention the committee on resolutions made a report declaring against the exercise of doubtful constitutional powers; that Pennsylvania would never give up her rights; that the Fifteenth Amendment should go before the people; that the negro should not have the ballot; that the finances need reform; that labor reforms should be encouraged; that the whole reconstruction policy tends to destroy Republican government and establish tyranny; that our sympathies should be given to nations struggling for liberty; and that our system of taxation is burdensome and should be done away with. The report was unanimously adopted.

General Hancock's name was greeted with vociferous applause. A letter from him, dated May 21, positively prohibiting the use of his name as a candidate, was read. Several delegations declared their determination to vote for him in spite of it.

On the first ballot the vote was, General Hancock, 22, Geo. W. Cass 48 and General Wm. McCandless 5. Second ballot—Packer 68, Cass 47, Hancock —; and Mr. Packer was declared the nominee of the party.

FIRE NEAR MOBILE.

MOBILE, July 14.—The hotel at Point Clear, below the city, was burned down last night. The fire originated in the kitchen. A powerful northwest wind was blowing at the time, and the flames spread so rapidly and burned so furiously that no one could get near the main building, which was entirely destroyed. The baggage of many of the boarders were burned up. One hundred and fifty boarders were in the building. No lives were lost.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES.

Mr. Seward sailed for St. Petersburg yesterday.

Nothing has been heard of the Great Eastern since Monday.

The Chinese Labor Convention has been organized. Governor Harris is president and the attendance is large.

General Canstar surprised a village of Dog Indians, killed fifty-two, and captured 17 women and children, and three hundred and fifty animals.

The Virginia State Education Convention convened at Lexington yesterday. General Lee was nominated for president, but declined to serve.

Cars, carrying boats, have been sent out from Harrisburg, Texas, to rescue people in Colorado valley, who, on account of the flood, have had to seek shelter in the tree tops.

Mr. Morehead, the representative of the Memphis Commercial Convention, sailed on the Java to lay the results of the deliberations of that body before the exchanges of the principal European cities.

Turner, negro postmaster at Mason, was arrested yesterday afternoon by United States Treasury Agent for counterfeiting. The examination before the United States Commissioner closed with closed doors.

It could not be had, because the District Attorney has gone to Europe, leaving a clerk in charge, and the United States District Judge has also gone on a trip, leaving the Collector to attend to his affairs.

A man named Peter Holten was arrested at New Orleans yesterday for falsely sampling the recently seized cigars. Deputy Surveyor Charles P. Keith has also been arrested. Of the cigars seized a lot of 7300 were stamped on the bottom so that the boxes were used without defacing the stamps. One hundred thousand cigars were seized on Tuesday.

THE RULE OF MAMMON.

The English Church on the Auction Block.

The London Telegraph says:

The purchase system is en vogue—shall we beautifully say life a golden thread?—by many British institutions. For the loyal luxury of serving his sovereign, ensign, lieutenant, captain, major or lieutenant-colonel, an English gentleman also has to pay certain sums, regulated by the House of Commons, and a certain sum ruled by the state of the country. The whole of the highest bidder, and "take, then, the abate," is his Majesty's spirit-stirring address to a buyer who has most money in his purse. The whole of the highest bidder, and "take, then, the abate," is his Majesty's spirit-stirring address to a buyer who has most money in his purse.

But of all kinds of British purchases none must seem so strange to a foreign observer as the sale of advowsons in the English Church. Centuries have elapsed since the church was first sold to the highest bidder, and the early ideal of the Christian priest and missionary has been often trampled, sometimes terribly, sometimes casually, by wicked or worldly men. Nevertheless, in all churches the old standard is avowed. People do still consider that a minister of religion is a man that holds himself commissioned by Divine authority to preach the Gospel and to administer the rites of the Christian Church. Face to face with this still potent belief, we have the extraordinary fact that the sacred right is openly offered for sale to the highest bidder, and a sinner in the City of London may buy the next right of presentation to a living, and may exercise the power of appointment. His duty is to sell the right to the highest bidder, and a sinner in the City of London may buy the next right of presentation to a living, and may exercise the power of appointment.
